

Wales

Wales has a population of 3 million people as of 2011.

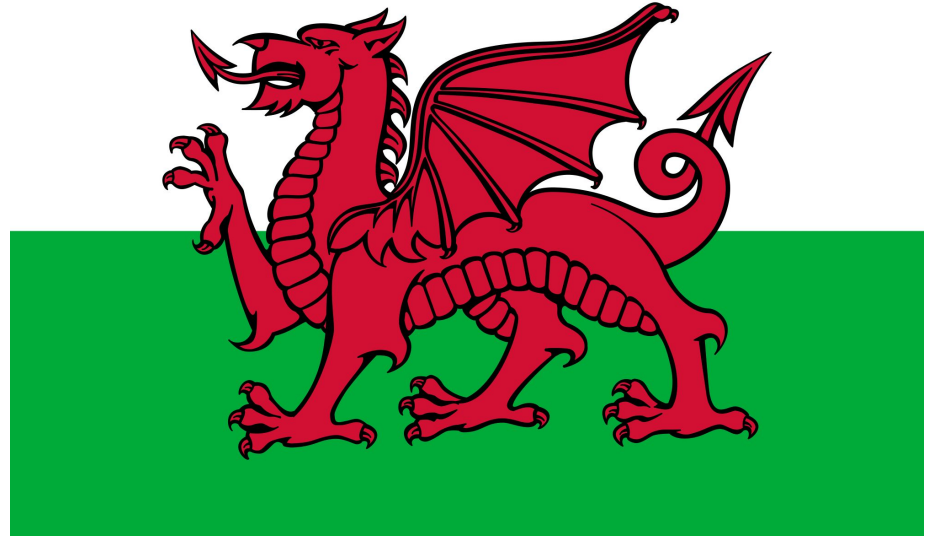

English and Welsh are the two official languages of Wales. Cardiff is the largest city and also the capital of Wales. Wales is called Cymru in Welsh.

Questions

Why is the country called Wales?

How many letters does the long place name in Wales have? What is the biggest lake in Wales.

The flag has got a red dragon on it because it started with a big fight. The dragon represents the fire dragon. The dragon was fighting with an ice dragon but the fire dragon won. To remember what happened the Welsh flag has got the fire dragon on.

Wales is a lovely place so I think pack your bag and get moving. There is a really tall mountain so get your phone out and take some pictures.

I hope the class learns lots this year To Mrs Emery From Annabelle.