The government has declared Coronavirus to be ‘a serious and imminent threat to public health’

‘The overriding priority remains to save lives’ (from ‘Our Plan to Rebuild’ May 2020, HM Government)

This Risk Assessment is based as far as possible on established scientific knowledge about the spread of Covid-19 including that contained in recent Government publications e.g. ...

‘Sufferers (of Covid-19) almost certainly become infectious to others before symptoms are displayed and almost all sufferers are maximally infectious to others as soon as their symptoms begin even if these are initially mild’. (from ‘Our Plan To Rebuild, p38)

System of Controls (February 2021)

Prevention

You must always:

1. Minimise contact with individuals who are required to self-isolate by ensuring they do not attend school
2. Ensure face coverings are used in recommended circumstances
3. Ensure everyone is advised to clean their hands thoroughly and more often than usual
4. Ensure good respiratory hygiene for everyone by promoting the 'catch it, bin it, kill it' approach
5. Maintain enhanced cleaning, including cleaning frequently touched surfaces often, using standard products such as detergents
6. Consider how to minimise contact across the site and maintain social distancing wherever possible
7. Keep occupied spaces well ventilated

In specific circumstances:

8. Ensure individuals wear the appropriate PPE where necessary
9. Promote and engage in asymptomatic testing where available

Response to any infection

You must always:

10. Promote and engage with NHS Test and Trace process
11. Manage and report confirmed cases of coronavirus amongst the school community
12. Contain any outbreak by following local health protection team advice

	28a. Curriculum Priorities	February 2021 DfE Guidance: Education is not optional The curriculum remains broad and ambitious

		Teach an ambitious and broad curriculum in all subjects. Where appropriate, teaching time should be prioritised to address the most significant gaps in pupils' knowledge. You should ensure that curriculum planning is informed both by an assessment of pupils' starting points and gaps in their knowledge, and an understanding of what is the most critical content for progression. To achieve this, you may need to make substantial modifications to your curriculum and should make effective use of regular formative assessment while avoiding the introduction of unnecessary tracking systems. You can use existing flexibilities to create time to cover the most important content in which pupils are not yet secure. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> You may consider it appropriate to suspend some subjects for some pupils in exceptional circumstances. Up to and including Key Stage 3, prioritisation within subjects of the most important components for progression is likely to be more effective than removing subjects, which may deprive pupils of the knowledge and cultural capital they need to succeed in life. If you choose to suspend some subjects for some pupils (where the subject is not one that is statutorily mandated) you should be able to show that this is in the best interests of these pupils and this should be subject to discussion with parents. Early years foundation stage (EYFS) For pupils in Reception, disaplications of specific EYFS requirements can be used where coronavirus (COVID-19) restrictions prevent settings delivering the EYFS in full. 53 You may consider focusing more on the prime areas of learning in the EYFS, including communication and language, personal, social and emotional development, and physical development, if you think this would support your children following time out due to coronavirus (COVID-19). For pupils in Reception, teachers should also assess and address gaps in language, early reading and mathematics, particularly ensuring children's acquisition of phonic knowledge and extending their vocabulary. For Reception, consider how all groups of children can be given equal opportunities for outdoor education. Key Stages 1 and 2 For pupils in Key Stages 1 and 2, you are expected to prioritise identifying gaps and re-establishing good progress in the essentials (phonics and reading, increasing vocabulary, writing and mathematics), identifying opportunities across the curriculum		Greyfriars has a spiral curriculum to enable development of subject specific key concepts towards meeting age related milestones at the end of Phases. You should ensure your curriculum offer remains broad, so that the majority of pupils are taught a full range of subjects over the year, including sciences, humanities, music and the arts, physical education and sport, religious education and, at Key Stage 2, languages. Key Stage 3 For pupils in Key Stage 3 you are expected to consider whether any modification to your curriculum offer is needed to address the most significant gaps in English and mathematics. You should ensure the curriculum remains broad from year 7 to year 9 so that the majority of pupils are taught a full range of subjects over the year, including sciences, languages, humanities, music and the arts, physical education and sport, religious education, and citizenship. Key Stages 4 and 5 The majority of pupils in years 10 and 11 are expected to continue to study mandatory non-examination subjects like PE, alongside their examination (teacher assessment) subjects. This will support them towards their preferred route to further study. Pupils in years 12 and 13 are more likely to undertake self-directed study, but you may still need to ensure they receive additional support. Discontinuing a subject is likely to significantly limit choices for further study and employment, so is expected to be rare.
